THOMAS HAUSCHILD,

Plaintiff,

v.

CITY OF RICHMOND; CHRISTOPHER
MAGNUS; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive

Defendants.

Case No. 15-CV-01556-WHA

STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER
REGARDING PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS FOR EMOTIONAL DISTRESS DAMAGES

Plaintiff Thomas Hauschild ("Plaintiff") and Defendants City of Richmond and Christopher Magnus ("Defendants") hereby stipulate as follows:

1. Plaintiff acknowledges that Plaintiff is not claiming any damages for any alleged mental, emotional, psychiatric, psychological, or physical injury, effect, or impairment over and above those typically associated with the remaining causes of action pled in Plaintiff's Amended Complaint, (Violation of Plaintiff's due process, speech, and petition rights under the First, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and under 42 U.S.C. Section 1983;

Discrimination in violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act (“FEHA”) under California Government Code §12940; Retaliation in violation of FEHA under California Government Code §12940(h); and violations of California Government Code sections 3304(d)(1) and 3309.5.)

Plaintiff is only seeking generalized or garden variety emotional distress damages in this action.

2. Plaintiff will not call any expert witness, including but not limited to any psychiatrist, psychologist, psychotherapist, counselor or physician, to testify concerning Plaintiff’s alleged emotional distress. Plaintiff is not intending to call any other witness or offer any evidence other than his own testimony to support his emotional distress claim. However, should Plaintiff later determine a need to offer such a witness or such evidence, Plaintiff shall promptly give notice to Defendants and the parties shall meet and confer about the issue.
3. Based upon these representations, Defendants will not move for or otherwise request a mental examination of Plaintiff. Defendants will withdraw their currently pending request for a mental examination.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
